VISIT TO BERLENGA ISLAND

PENICHE ≈ PORTUGAL

On 29 May 2026, you will have the unique opportunity to discover one of the most remarkable natural treasures of the Portuguese coast: the Berlenga Island.

Located just a short boat trip from Peniche, Berlenga is part of the Berlengas Archipelago, a protected area recognised by UNESCO as a Biosphere Reserve. This extraordinary island is known for its dramatic cliffs, crystal-clear waters and rich biodiversity, making it one of the most fascinating natural landscapes in Portugal.

During this experience, you will explore the island on a guided visit, learning about its history, geology and unique ecosystems. The tour will also include a boat trip to the famous sea caves, where you will have the chance to admire the impressive rock formations and the stunning colours of the Atlantic waters surrounding the island.

Whether you are passionate about nature, curious about local heritage, or simply looking for an unforgettable Atlantic adventure, this visit to Berlenga promises a truly memorable experience.
